COFFS CITY CHATROOM – 14 September, 2020

President Jay called today's meeting to order at 12.30pm and the Rotary Thanksgiving was read by Geoff Pollack. The Loyal Toast was given by Ian McAllister.

11 members attended, however no one on via Zoom with no apologies. Our special guests today were, guest speaker, Michael Moffett and potential new member, James Davis.

Reports

- President Jay mentioned that our very own, Melissa was noted as the guest speaker at Coffs club on Wednesday.

  Jay also mentioned that the latest E News had an article about the proposed District merger, D9670 with D9650 forming a very large, geographically) D9660. This will all happen from 1 July 2022. PDG Neville Parsons will take up the roll of the initial DG for the new District.

  Jay also followed up on the 'Polished Man' project. So far there are about 6 members who have indicated their willingness to take part. Jay advised that he may invite his daughter to a meeting to completed the finger nail painting.
- Ian McAllister advised that next weeks meeting will include instruction by Terry Maguire on the art of photography.

General Business

- Bob Carle advised that there had been some damage to the Service Club signs on the Highway. Apparently the Girl Guides sign was the target and Bob had obtained a quote, $120, for a repair job. It was agreed that the club would pay for this as, no doubt, the Girl Guides would be strapped for cash.

Bob Carle introduced Michael Moffett, who spoke about his career in radio and life at his local radio station.
